CASTLES IN THE GLADES

Continued from Page One most forcibly going about from one fob to another—the invariable courtesy and kindness of the men, from top to bottom. It seems to be characteristic of out-door men, as distinguished from professional and the state of the seems on. That is a rather involved sen-tence, but perhaps it isn't inappropriate.

I hear that the Hodges have bought some land with a house on it and are about to become residents instead of sojourners for a time in the Glades. Well, this is a little work of the control of

USED ON HIGHWAY WORK
An order has been received by Administrator Alto Walford to use only Emergency Bellef Workers on Conners highway. As a result all men were ladd off until the needs gated, and if in need, they will be placed in relief rolls and later given work on Conners highway.
It is planned to make this work an emergency rollef project as it orders from Jacksonville.—Okeechobee News.
